PHILOSOPHY

Our way of thinking and working is based on quality. We are perfectionists, always looking for the best in each detail. In World Soccer Agency everyone has its own dedicated expertise to ensure maximum results, professionalism and confidentiality. Passion and commitment, as well as availability and direct contact with each athlete. Innovation and speed of each service with a specific goal: have the player at the center of it all.

MORE THAN FOOTBALL

Becoming part of World Soccer Agency means living a personal experience, and then professional. It means discovering a structure capable of promoting the talent of each athlete in all of his components. It is crucial for us the spirit of belonging to the group and the human aspect is the primary prerequisite for collaboration. We try to establish a deep relationship with our athletes, based on respect, trust and care

WSA WORLDWIDE

WSA SERVICES

Over the years WSA has strengthened its leadership on the world scene, offering it's professional sports consulting and international scouting services through WSA's offices in London, Rio De Janeiro and Montevideo, the latter in partnership with Pablo Boselli's GBG, which also sees us protagonists in Argentina, Colombia and Mexico.

The task of WSA is to look after the interests and careers of the footballers and to manage their image. In so doing it allows its clients to focus exclusively on the pitch. WSA is a highly reputed agency which provides support to world-class clubs by offering assistance and providing global coverage.

FOOTBALL SCOUTING

Thanks to WSA's scouting international network, the scouting department carries out constant scouting activities among the world following also the youth sectors in the main areas of global interest.

Areas of intervention: Europe, South America, Africa, Asia

SPORT CONSULTING

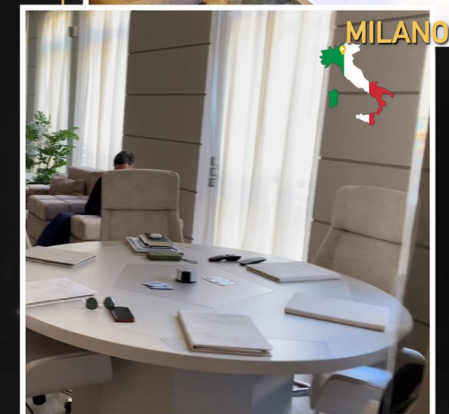

The best sports consultancy for clubs and professional footballers in the field of national and international transfers, mediation, contract negotiations, membership and career management. Image rights and commercial rights.

Areas of intervention: search for sponsor, licensing, merchandising.

LEGAL & FINANCE

The most complete legal assistance in all institutional sectors of sports, civil, criminal, tax, international, EU and commercial law. The highest level of personalization and confidentiality on financial services.

Areas of intervention: private banking, asset management and trust funds, insurance consultancy, pension consultancy, real estate consultancy, legal advice

DIGITAL & COMMUNICATION

World Soccer Agency, with a view to the brand internationalisation and continuing its path of content creation on social media and digital innovation, is very attentive to the new languages coming from the world of social networks.

This is why, after the relaunch of its Instagram account and the work done on this social with several of its clients' profiles, the agency has landed on TikTok and Twitch, becoming the first sports proxy agency in the world to launch an account on these platforms.

Increasingly aware of the digital world and all-round communication, over the years WSA has gained a leading role in this sector, offering this crucial additional service where required.

For the first time in the history of Italian sport, a consulting agency opens a division entirely dedicated to eSports.

In partnership with MKERS, a leading team in competitive gaming, with a view to initiating an ongoing process of internationalisation, it offers clubs support in scouting activities, supporting them in their export consulting activities.
